

Songwriters Circle 2000 Song Challenges

We meet every third Friday of the month at the Supreme Bean Coffeehouse on West 39th Street at 8 p.m. to showcase brand-new songs. Bring any original songs and acoustic instruments. 1615 W. 39th St., K.C., MO

Call David Hakan if you have any questions about the challenges at (816) 363-1917, or e-mail DavidHakan@aol.com.

Kansas City

The Home of Great Songs

January Song Challenge - E-mail

Bring a new song that is in the form of an e-mail message.

February Song Challenge - Snow Song

Bring a new song that uses snow as an image or a setting, or that is about a snow storm.

March Song Challenge - My Father's Song

Bring a new song that is about your father, or sung to your father.

April Song Challenge - Train Song

Bring a new song that uses a train as an image or setting, or that is about a train.

May Song Challenge - A Capella

Bring a new song that is meant to be sung a Capella.

June Song Challenge - Poem To Song

Bring a new song that is based on a poem. Change the words so that the lyrics are different from the poem.

July Song Challenge - At the Beach

Bring a new song that takes place at a beach.

August Song Challenge - Stolen Line

Bring a new song that uses one of your favorite lines from another song. You must not "borrow" it just the way it is, but rather change it enough to make it yours or "steal" it.

September Song Challenge - Title Book

Bring a new song that starts from a great title or choose a title from our "Title Book."

October Song Challenge - Persona

Bring a new song that uses a different persona. Write from the viewpoint of a person of the opposite sex, of a much younger or older person, etc.

November Song Challenge - Midnight Hour

Bring a new song that uses the midnight hour as an image or a setting, or that has the phrases part of a refrain.

December Song Challenge - One Sided

Bring a new song that is only one side of a conversation between two people.