

2016 Song Challenges Songwriters Circle of Kansas City

January Song Challenge – Creation Story

Bring a new song that tells one of the many creation stories, or make up your own. Dave Carter even has one for Unitarians, Gentle Arms of Eden.

February Song Challenge – Family History

Bring a new song that uses a story from your family history.

March Song Challenge - PreEdison

Bring a new song that takes place before electricity.

April Song Challenge – Reunited.com

Bring a new song that has two people reunited through the Internet and technology.

May Song Challenge - The Tree

Bring a new song that is about a tree or is from the point of view of a tree.

June Song Challenge – Four Seasons

Bring a new song that is structured around the four seasons or mentions each season.

July Song Challenge – A Blessing

Bring a new song that is a blessing or has a blessing in it, like Bob Dylan's Forever Young.

August Song Challenge – When I Go

Bring a new song that has instructions for when you die; or a description of what will happen to you.

September Song Challenge – Hello Mr. Abstract Noun

Bring a new song that puts an abstract noun as a person in the song, as Bob Dylan does in Dignity.

October Song Challenge – Collaboration

Bring a new song that is a collaboration with someone. Ideally the work should be split about 50/50, but it's okay if one person does the words and one does the music.

November Song Challenge – Heart Strings

Bring a new song that tugs at our heart strings or brings a tear to our eyes.

December Song Challenge – Title Book

Bring a new song that is written from a title, or use one from the Circle's Title Book.
